GICC (Queenstown) students perform at Navratri festival celebrations

Students of GICC Queenstown performed at the Navratri festival celebrations in several temples in Singapore.

The first performance was on 1st October at the Sri Mariamman Temple on South Bridge Road . The next performance was at the Sri Vairavimada Kaliyamman Temple, Toa Payoh on 5th Oct and the 3rd performance was at Sri Vadabhadra Kaliyamman Temple, Serangoon. Children showcased various Indian performing arts such as Carnatic and Hindustani vocal music, Bharatanatyam, Kathak, Odissi and Global Rhythms dance forms. Our young and budding violinists accompanied the Carnatic vocal singers. The teachers from the Global Indian Cultural Centre were present to motivate and guide the students for each performance, which gave a tremendous boost to the students. At every temple, it was a great opportunity for the GICC students to perform in the serene atmosphere of the temple in the presence of appreciative audience.

Vijayadashami puja at GICC Queenstown

On 11th Oct, GICC organised a Vijayadashmi puja at the campus. The students of the shloka chanting class under the guidance of their teachers gave a wonderful recitation. The GICC teachers sang a Saraswati Keerthana .This was followed by the distribution of prasad. The celebration brought 250 GICC students and parents to the campus.
